£1000

Local young lady, Shannon is 13 years old and is shaving her head in memory of her little sister, Chelsea who lost her battle with cancer aged just 3 yrs old.

Monday 9 September will be Chelsea's 8th birthday, and is the day Shannon is shaving her head.

WOULD YOU AT THIS AGE, OR ANY AGE FOR THAT MATTER HAVE THE COURAGE TO SHAVE OFF ALL YOUR HAIR????

This is a brave act from a young lady who seen first hand what cancer does to people, especially little children.

She is hoping to raise over £1000 for the charity set up in memory of her little sister and to raise more awareness of childhood cancer.

If supporters want to give: £2
